

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law protections. My 92 year old mother used to receive 10 to 20 calls per week. It was very disturbing to have these sales people harrassing her. I think our law protects seniors from unsolicited calls and protects them from telephone bulllys.